All communications and submittals shall be addressed to the DRC at such address as the chairman of the DRC shall hereafter designate in writing addressed and mailed to the Lots Owners.

5.5 Variances. The DRC may grant reasonable variances or adjustments from any conditions and restrictions imposed by this Declaration in order to overcome practical difficulties and unnecessary hardships arising by reason of the application of the conditions and restrictions contained in these covenants or in a development guide. Such variances or adjustments shall be granted only when the granting thereof shall not be materially detrimental or injurious to the other Lots or Common Elements nor deviate substantially from the general intent and purpose of this Declaration. In the event that the request for a variance is disapproved by the DRC, the applicant shall have the right of appeal to the Executive Board of the Association.

5.6 Waivers. The approval or consent of the DRC, or appointed representative thereof, to any application for design approval shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of any right to hold or deny approval or consent by the committee as to any application or their matters subsequently or additionally submitted for approval or consent.

5.7 Liability. The DRC and the members thereof, as well as any representative of the committee designated to act on its behalf, shall not be liable in damages to any person submitting requests for approval or failure to approve or disapprove in regard to any matter within its jurisdiction under these covenants. Every Lot Owner or other person who submits plans for approval agrees, by submission of such plans and specifications, that he will not bring any action or suit against the approving body or Declarant to recover any such damages. Approval of plans and specifications shall not be deemed to constitute compliance with the requirements of any local building codes or land use regulations and it shall be the responsibility of the Lot Owner or other person submitting plans and specifications to comply therewith.

5.8 Records. The DRC shall maintain written records of all applications submitted to it and of all actions taken by it with respect thereto. Such records shall be open and available for inspection by any interested party during reasonable hours of the business day.

5.9 Inspection. The DRC shall have the right and authority to inspect construction in progress to assure its conformance with plans approved by the Committee.

5.10 Enforcement. Enforcement of this Declaration may be by any proceeding at law or equity against any person or persons violating or attempting to violate any such provision. The DRC and any interested Lot Owner shall have the right but not the obligation to institute, maintain and prosecute any such proceedings. In any action instituted or maintained under this Article, the DRC shall be entitled to recover its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred pursuant thereto, as well as any and all other sums awarded by the Court. Failure of the DRC or of any Lot Owner to enforce any covenant or restriction herein contained shall, in no event, be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

Declarant or its assignees may exercise any reserved rights on all or any portion of the Estates at Stone Ridge in whatever order determined. Declarant or its assignees shall not be obligated to exercise any reserved right or to expand, improve or supplement the Estates at Stone Ridge beyond the number of Lots initially submitted.

6.5 Amendment of the Declaration or Map. If Declarant or its assignees elect to exercise any rights set forth in this Article, that party shall comply with the Act by recording an amendment to the Declaration and/or an amendment to the Estates at Stone Ridge plat.

6.8 Additions by Others. Additions of Lots to Estates at Stone Ridge may be made by persons other than the Declarant, or its successors and assigns or Owners, upon approval of the Association pursuant to a vote of a majority of a quorum of its members. Such approval shall be evidenced by a certified copy of such resolution of approval and a supplement or amendment to this Declaration, both recorded in records of the Montrose County Clerk and Recorder.

6.9 Water Rights. Declarant, for itself, its successors and assigns, has reserved all right, title and interest to all the water rights associated within Estates at Stone Ridge including, without limitation, all surface water, ground water, lease rights, transfer rights, use rights, tributary water, non-tributary water, ditch rights, and water storage rights.
